

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

1. Analyze the characteristics of dyslexia through the description of key traits exhibited by learners with dyslexia.
2. Apply and assess the effectiveness of various evaluation methods for learners with dyslexia to determine their educational needs.
3. Design and employ instructional strategies and interventions tailored to the unique