

	Radow College of Humanities and Social Sciences
	Interdisciplinary Studies
	Interdisciplinary Studies, BS

Upon completion of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

Identify similarities and differences in methods of learning and analysis in the disciplines studied;

Demonstrate interdisciplinary skills for addressing academic and practical problems;

Discuss topics that apply knowledge across disciplines;

Demonstrate creative and critical thinking and writing

Integrate academic curriculum with other co-curricular goals, such as career development, life-long learning, interdisciplinary learning, international or study abroad perspectives, and/or internship or other experiential learning.

Demonstrate information literacy, critical thinking, and evaluation skills