

Upon complet on of this degree from KSU, students will be able to:

Synthesize knowledge from a liberal educat on including social science, natural science, nursing science and the art and ethics of caring as a foundat on for providing holist c nursing care.

Implement competent, pat ent-centered care of individuals, families, groups, communites, and populatons along the health-illness continuum and throughout the lifespan within mult cultural environments.

Ut lize leadership skills to crit cally examine and cont nuously improve healthcare delivery systems, with emphasis on safety, quality, and f scal responsibility. Analyze current research and apply conceptual/theoret cal models for translating evid s app<sup>o</sup> ar o mcare.